12. In your opinion, what were the top three barriers to productivity in your job or work unit? *

No major barriers to report. Overall, the team worked collaboratively.

13. What would you suggest to management to make our organization a better place to work? *

No specific suggestions at this time. I appreciate the opportunities and support provided by the organization.

14. What advice would you give to your replacement? *

No specific advice at this time.

15. What, if anything, could have been done to prevent you from leaving? *

I believe the situation could have been handled in a better and more transparent manner. I do not feel that my exit was handled fairly, and I would have appreciated receiving a clear and valid reason for the decision rather than an unclear justification. I was also willing to work on any technology, take on different responsibilities, or move to another suitable role within the organization. An opportunity for internal reassignment could have helped avoid this situation.

16. Would you recommend this organization to others as a place to work? Why or why not?

No, I would not recommend the organization at this time. Although I gained valuable technical experience and learned a lot during my tenure, I was disappointed with the way my exit was handled. I believe the organization should focus more on employee transparency, fair treatment, job security, and providing clear communication regarding important employment decisions.
